EXAMINATION CONTENT AND TIMING

HOW THE EXAMINATION IS DEVELOPED
The CNML Steering Committee participates in and provides oversight for the development and ongoing maintenance of the examinations via the CNML Certification Program Committee. The Steering Committee, Certification Program Committee, and certification director work in partnership with PSI to ensure the examinations are developed and maintained in a manner consistent with generally accepted psychometric principles, educational testing practices, and national accreditation standards for certification programs.

The CNML Steering Committee and certification director select diverse groups of qualified subject matter experts (SMEs) to participate in exam development activities throughout the examination development process. SMEs are selected based on their demonstrated expertise, experience level, geographic representation, and specialty area and serve on the Certification Program Committees for each credential. SMEs participate in writing and reviewing examination questions, reviewing examinations, and establishing the passing point for the examinations.

Job Analysis /Role Delineation Studies are conducted periodically to identify and validate the knowledge and skills which are measured by the examinations. Each job analysis study includes a survey developed by SMEs and testing consultants and distributed to a broad group of professionals. The results of the Job Analysis /Role Delineation Studies serve as the basis for the examination and are used to develop the content outline included in this handbook.

The methodology used to set the minimum passing score is the Angoff method, in which expert judges estimate the passing probability of each question on the examination. These ratings are averaged to determine the preliminary minimum passing score (i.e., the number of correctly answered questions required to pass the examination). This method takes into account the difficulty of the examination. The preliminary minimum passing score is validated by the performance of candidates. The passing standard is applied consistently across all candidates who take the same form of the examination.

All examination questions are the copyrighted property of the AONL-CC. It is forbidden under federal copyright law to copy, reproduce, record, distribute or display these examination questions by any means, in whole or in part. Doing so may result in severe civil and criminal penalties.
EXAMINATION FORMAT AND TIMING
The examination is composed of 115 multiple-choice questions. A candidate’s score is based on 100 of these questions; 15 are “trial” or “pretest” questions that are interspersed throughout the examination. A candidate is allowed two (2.0) hours in which to complete the examination.

The examination is based on four major content areas. Each content area is described by the list of tasks that follows the content heading in the Examination Content Outline. In addition, the number of examination questions devoted to each major content area is indicated.

Each question on the examination is also categorized by a cognitive level that a candidate would likely use to respond. These categories are:

- Recall: The ability to recall or recognize specific information;
- Application: The ability to comprehend, relate or apply knowledge to new or changing situations; and
- Analysis: The ability to analyze and synthesize information, determine solutions and/or evaluate the usefulness of a solution.

PREPARING FOR THE EXAMINATION

CONTENT
Study should begin by reviewing the Examination Content Outline (see page 17). Review the content categories and related tasks, identifying those tasks that are not performed regularly and are not familiar. Then, focus study on those unfamiliar tasks. Remember that all questions in the CNML Examination are job-related and test application and analysis of information, not just recall of isolated facts.

OTHER STUDY RESOURCES
The AONL-CC recommends that review for the CNML Examination focus on references and programs that cover the information summarized in the CNML Examination Content Outline. It should not be inferred that questions in the examination are selected from any single reference or set of references or that study from specific references guarantees a passing score on the examination. For information about references, study guides and study sessions that address content contained in the CNML Examination Content Outline visit www.AONL.org.

SPECIAL ADMINISTRATION – LAPTOP OR PAPER-AND-PENCIL
On occasion, the CNML Examination may be offered on laptop or in paper-and-pencil format during membership meetings. A candidate who meets eligibility requirements and submits an application and fee for receipt by the posted deadline is allowed to test. Dates of special administrations and deadlines for receipt of applications are posted on www.AONL.org.

INCLEMENT WEATHER OR EMERGENCY
In the event of inclement weather or unforeseen emergencies on the day of examination, the AONL-CC, in concert with PSI, will determine whether circumstances warrant the cancellation, and subsequent rescheduling, of an examination. The examination usually proceeds as scheduled if testing personnel are able to conduct business.

Every attempt is made to administer an examination as scheduled; however, should an examination be canceled, the scheduled candidate will receive notification following the examination regarding a rescheduled examination date or reapplication procedures. In the case of cancellation, no additional fee is required to test.

For computer administrations at PSI Test Centers, candidates may visit PSI’s website at www.psionline.com/openings prior to the examination to determine if any Test Centers have been closed.

In the event of a personal emergency on the day of examination, a candidate may request consideration of rescheduling the examination without additional fee by contacting the AONL-CC in writing within 30 days of the scheduled testing session. A description of the emergency and supporting documentation are required. Rescheduling without additional fee will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

SECURITY
The AONL-CC and PSI maintain examination administration and security standards that are designed to assure that all candidates are provided the same opportunity to demonstrate their abilities. The testing environment is continuously monitored by audio and video surveillance equipment or examination personnel.

ON THE DAY OF THE EXAMINATION

REPORTING FOR THE EXAMINATION
For a computer administration, report to the Test Center 30 minutes before the scheduled testing time. Look for signs indicating PSI Test Center Check In. A candidate who arrives more than 15 minutes after the scheduled testing time is not admitted.

For a special administration, report to the testing room at the time indicated on the confirmation notice. The examination will begin after all scheduled candidates are checked-in and seated or at the scheduled testing time whichever comes first. Follow the signs provided in the hotel/convention center to locate the testing room.
FAILING TO REPORT FOR THE EXAMINATION
A candidate who arrives more than fifteen (15) minutes after the scheduled testing time is not admitted.

- A candidate who is not admitted due to late arrival forfeits the application and all fees paid to take the CHFM Examination. A complete application and full examination fee are required to reapply for CHFM Examination.
- A candidate who does not reschedule an examination session for a date that falls within the 90-day period forfeits the application and all fees paid to take the examination. A complete application and examination fee are required to reapply for examination.

VERIFYING IDENTITY
To gain admission to the Test Center or testing room, the candidate is required to present:

1. Two forms of identification, one with a current photograph. Both forms of identification must be current and include the candidate’s current name and signature. Acceptable forms of photo identification include: a current driver’s license with photograph, a current state identification card with photograph, a current passport, or a current military identification card with photograph. Employment ID cards, student ID cards and temporary identification cards are NOT acceptable as primary identification, but may be used as secondary identification. Secondary identification must be current and must verify the candidate’s name and signature.

2. The Authorization to Test notice provided by AONL. The confirmation notice contains a unique identification number required to sit for the examination. The candidate is required to sign a roster for verification of identity.

A candidate without proper identification is not permitted to test.

Evidence of misconduct is reviewed by the Appeal Board of the AONL-CC to determine whether the candidate will be allowed to reapply for examination. If re-examination is granted, a complete application and examination fee are required to reapply.

All examination questions are the copyrighted property of the AONL-CC. It is forbidden under federal copyright law to copy, reproduce, record, distribute or display these examination questions by any means, in whole or in part. Doing so may result in severe civil and criminal penalties.

TAKING THE EXAMINATION
After the identity of the candidate has been verified, the candidate is directed to a testing carrel for a computer administration or an assigned seat for a special administration. Each candidate is provided one sheet of scratch paper and a pencil for calculations that must be returned to the examination proctor at the completion of testing.

- For a paper-and-pencil administration, the candidate is provided oral and written instructions to guide the testing process.
- For a computer administration at a PSI Test Center or a laptop administration, the candidate is provided instructions on-screen. First, the candidate is instructed to enter his/her unique identification number. The candidate’s photograph, taken before beginning the examination, remains on-screen throughout the examination session. Prior to attempting the examination, the candidate is provided a short tutorial on using the software to take the examination. Tutorial time is NOT counted as part of the 2 hours allowed for the examination. Only after a candidate is comfortable with the software, does the examination begin.
The following is a sample of what the computer screen looks like when a candidate is attempting the examination.

The computer monitors the time spent on the examination. The examination terminates at the 2 hour mark. Clicking on the “Time” button in the lower right portion of the screen or selecting the TIME key reveals a digital clock that indicates the time remaining. The time feature may also be turned off during the examination.

Only one examination question is presented at a time. The question number appears in the lower right portion of the screen. The entire examination question appears on-screen (stem and four options labeled A, B, C and D). Select an answer by either entering the letter of the option (A, B, C or D) or clicking on the option using the mouse. The letter of the selected option appears in the window in the lower left portion of the screen. To change an answer, enter a different option by pressing the A, B, C or D key or by clicking on the option using the mouse. An answer may be changed multiple times.

To move to the next question, click on the forward arrow (>) in the lower right corner of the screen or select the NEXT key. This action allows the candidate to move forward through the examination question by question. To review a question or questions, click the backward arrow (<) or use the left arrow key to move backward through the examination.

An examination question may be left unanswered for return later in the examination session. Questions may also be bookmarked for later review by clicking in the blank square to the right of the Time button. Click on the double arrows (>>) to advance to the next unanswered or bookmarked question on the examination. To identify all unanswered or bookmarked questions, repeatedly click on the double arrows (>>). When the examination is completed, the number of examination questions answered is reported. If fewer than 115 questions were answered and time remains, return to the examination and answer the remaining questions. Be sure to answer each examination question before ending the examination. There is no penalty for guessing.

CANDIDATE COMMENTS
For a computer administration, online comments may be provided for any question by clicking on the Comment button to the left of the Time button. This opens a dialogue box where comments may be entered.
For a paper-and-pencil administration, comments may be provided on the answer sheet on the day of the examination. Comments will be reviewed, but individual responses will not be provided.

SCORE REPORTING

- A candidate who takes the examination in paper-and-pencil format receives his/her score report by mail approximately five weeks after the examination.
- A candidate who takes the examination on computer at a PSI Test Center or on laptop receives his/her score report on-screen and via email.

Score reports are issued by PSI, on behalf of the AONL-CC. Recognition of certification and additional information related to renewing the certification are issued from the AONL-CC within 6 weeks after a final score report is issued.

Scores are reported in written form only, in person or by U.S. mail. Scores are not reported over the telephone, by electronic mail or by facsimile. Applicant / certificant files are retained by AONL-CC for 7 years after the file becomes inactive.

The score report indicates a “Pass” or “Fail.” Raw score on the total examination determines Pass/Fail status. Additional detail is provided in the form of raw scores by major categories of the Examination Content Outline. A raw score is the number of questions answered correctly. Even though the examination consists of 115 questions, the score is based on 100 questions. Fifteen (15) questions are “pretest” questions and do not affect the candidate’s score.

PASSING THE EXAMINATION

A minimum score of 70 is required to pass the CNML examination. A candidate who passes the CNML Examination is awarded the Certified Nurse Manager and Leader (CNML) credential.

The AONL-CC reserves the right to recognize publicly any candidate who has successfully completed the CNML Examination. Recognition is awarded so as not to embarrass any candidate who is unsuccessful in an attempt to achieve certification.

FAILING THE EXAMINATION

Candidates can retake the exam no sooner than 90 days after their most recent exam date. An application will be available after the 90 days have passed. Candidates may apply for and take the same certification exam up to 3 times in a 12-month period.

SCORES CANCELED BY THE AONL-CC

The AONL-CC and PSI are responsible for the integrity of the scores reported. On occasion, occurrences, such as computer malfunction or misconduct by a candidate, may cause a score to be suspect. The AONL-CC is committed to rectifying such discrepancies as expeditiously as possible. The AONL-CC may void examination results if, upon investigation, violation of AONL-CC regulations is discovered.
CONFIDENTIALITY
Information about an individual’s application status, personal applicant/certificant information, and examination results are considered confidential. Scores are never reported to anyone other than the candidate, unless the candidate directs such a request in writing. All application information is confidential and will not be shared with any party other than PSI for exam administration and certification processing purposes. Information about a candidate/certificant will only be released to that applicant/certificant unless release of the information is authorized in writing by the individual or is required by law.

INFORMATION FOR THE NEW CERTIFICANT

CERTIFICATION VERIFICATION
An individual’s certification status is not considered confidential. The names of certified individuals are not considered confidential and may be published by the AONL-CC. The AONL-CC will provide confirmation of certification status to anyone who requests the information. Verification of certification status will include the individual’s name, current certification status, credential(s), and current expiration date.

AGGREGATE DATA
The AONL-CC reserves the right to use information supplied by or on behalf of a candidate. Studies and reports concerning candidates contain no information identifiable with any candidate, unless authorized by the candidate. Demographic information about a candidate is shared only in cases where the candidate may benefit. Scores are never reported to anyone other than the candidate, unless the candidate directs such a request in writing. Aggregate exam statistics (including the number of exam candidates, pass/fail rates, and total number of certificants) will be publicly available.

NAME AND ADDRESS CHANGE
If you move or change your name after obtaining certification, please notify the AONL Credentialing Center (AONL-CC), 155 North Wacker Dr. Suite 400, Chicago, IL 60606, Phone: 312.422.2807, Fax: 312.312.248.0861, Email: aonl@aha.org. Please provide a valid email address. Communication from the AONL-CC is primarily by email.

USE OF THE CERTIFICATION MARK
After receiving notification of CNML designation, the credential may be used as long as certification remains valid and in good standing. Individuals may not use the CNML credential until they have received specific written notification that they have successfully completed all requirements, including passing the exam. Certificants must comply with all recertification requirements to maintain use of the credential.

Certification is a non-transferable, revocable, limited, non-exclusive license to use the certification designation “CNML,” subject to compliance with the policies and procedures, as may be revised from time to time.
After meeting all eligibility requirements and passing the examination, individuals may use their credential in all correspondence and professional relations. The credential is typically used after the certificant’s name following any academic degrees and licensure (e.g. Jane Smith, BSN, RN, CNML).

The certification mark(s) may be used only as long as certification is valid.

THE RENEWAL PROCESS

Attaining certification is an indication of mastery of a well-defined body of knowledge at a point in time. Periodic renewal of the certification is required to maintain certified status. Initial certification or renewal of certification is valid for three (3) years.

PURPOSE & RATIONALE

AONL-CC supports the ongoing professional development of its certificants.

- The mandatory renewal process provides certificants with the opportunity to demonstrate the retention, reinforcement and expansion of their knowledge and skills.
- Renewal also provides encouragement to, and acknowledgement for, participation in ongoing professional development activities and continued learning.

To support this purpose, the recertification requirements require continuing education and professional activities that enhance ongoing professional development, recognize learning opportunities, and provide a process for both attaining and recording professional development achievements.

AONL-CC requires periodic renewal to promote professional development for certified nurse managers and to ensure that individuals who hold the credentials maintain an ongoing commitment to learning in their area(s) of practice to strengthen their knowledge and skills.

Professional development is accomplished by either obtaining the required number of continuing education credits or by passing the certification examination for which the content is periodically updated. Renewal by continuing education credits ensures that the individual has participated in professional development activities that are directly related to the body of knowledge for Certified Nurse Managers and Leaders (CNML) as defined by the respective exam content outlines. Since the examination is updated periodically, recertification by examination also ensures that the certificant has continued to build his/her knowledge and skills during the time since initial certification.

The 3-year time period established for recertification is based on both the scope of issues that face Certified Nurse Managers and Leaders (CNML) and the AONL-CC’s belief that new practices, research, and information are introduced in the field with enough frequency that professional development activities should be conducted routinely so that certificants remain up to date with both current best practices and emerging knowledge.
EXPIRATION DATE

Certification expires on the last day of the month in which the credential expires. Renewal applications will not be accepted from individual’s whose certification is in a state of suspension or has been revoked.

RECERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

A certificant may renew the CNML credential through one of two routes:

1. Successful re-examination; or

2. Documentation of 45 contact hours of continuing professional education over the 3-year period and payment of the renewal fee.

   AONL Member   $200
   Non-member     $275

Details of renewing the certification are provided to candidates who pass the examination in a certification package sent by the AONL-CC. The CNML Renewal Application is also available from www.AONL.org/certification.

A certificant receives multiple notices of pending expiration from the AONL-CC, provided that a current e-mail address is on file with the AONL-CC.

VERIFICATION & AUDIT PROCESS

In order to maintain the credibility and integrity of the certification process AONL-CC reserves the right to verify any information provided on renewal applications. Requests for verification may be made prior to recertification or at a future time. Certificants are advised to retain all renewal documentation for at least 180 days after their renewal deadline.

FAILING TO RENEW

A certificant who fails to renew his/her certification is no longer considered certified and may not use the CNML credential in professional communications, such as on letterhead, stationery and business cards, in directory listings and in signature. To regain certification, the individual must retake and pass the CNML Examination.

A percent of certification renewal applications will be audited to ensure that all requirements are met. When applications are selected for audit, certificants will be notified and asked to submit documentation of all continuing education activities.

If any areas of non-compliance are identified during the any review of a recertification application the individual will have 30 days to submit any required information. If the required information is not provided the individual’s certification will expire at the end of the 30 days or on the normal expiration date (whichever comes last). If an application is selected for audit and the certificant does not respond or does not submit the requested documentation, certification will not be renewed.

ELIGIBILITY, EXAMINATION & RENEWAL APPEALS

A candidate who believes he/she was unjustly denied eligibility for examination, who challenges results of an examination or who believes he/she was unjustly denied renewal of certification may request reconsideration of the decision by submitting a written appeal.

The candidate for certification or renewal of certification must provide convincing evidence that a severe disadvantage was afforded the candidate during processing of an application for examination or renewal of certification or prior to or during administration of an examination. The written appeal must also indicate the specific relief requested.

The appealing candidate is required to submit a $100 fee with the written appeal. The fee will be refunded to the candidate if deemed justified through action of the Appeal Board.

Complete copies of the appeals policies are available upon request from AONL-CC. Please email aonl@aha.org to request the full policy.
