

Learning Community

Charter

The AONL/AHA Learning Community is dedicated to facilitating collaboration through structured forums that facilitate knowledge exchanged, focusing on people-driven innovation or technology-enabled care models. The initiative supports dissemination and adaptation of transformative approaches in healthcare delivery, while promoting staff autonomy, engagement, and satisfaction by empowering participants to share, experiment, and learn together.

AONL Strategic Alignment

Priority

- 1. Advancing Nursing Leadership
- 2. Lead, Inspire, and Support the Health Care Workforce

Objective

- 1. Lead the adoption of innovative clinical practices and emerging technologies to revolutionize care delivery while advancing equitable access for all communities.
- 2. Engage a community of nurse leaders who represent membership to drive innovation and knowledge exchange across the care continuum.

Stakeholders

- 1. AONL/AHA members and non-members seeking innovative solutions.
- 2. Nurse leaders in all settings and roles.
- 3. AHA and AONL Operations
- 4. AONL Workforce Committee
